

WEATHER INDICATIONS: FAIR, COLDER.

Economical advertising is not the kind that costs the least, but which reaches the largest constituency. Nearly half a million copies of THE WORLD are sold every week-day, and more than one-third of a million on Sunday.

PRICE ONE CENT

JAVE B HILLS TURK

SIX WERE DROWNED.

Steamer Reading Crashed Into a Fishing Schooner.

Gracie H. Benson Went Down Near Boston Light.

Four of the Crew Clung to a Mast-head.

BOSTON, Nov. 28.—The fishing schooner Gracie H. Benson was sunk at an early hour this morning in a collision with the steamer Reading, of the Philadelphia and Reading line, at the entrance to Boston Harbor. Six of the Benson's crew were drowned.

The schooner arrived yesterday with a full fare of fish, and after unloading she left at midnight for Provincetown, where the crew were to spend Thanksgiving. Capt. John Harvermer, one of the rescued men, tells this story of the collision:

"We were proceeding out of the channel with a fair wind. When about half-way between Boston light and Bug light the steamer Reading, with the barge Why Father Knickerbocker in tow,

Because Miss Brooklyn said: 'Yes.'

Gulford in tow, loomed up before us. We endeavored to tack to get across the steamer's bow and out of danger, but she showed no signs of slowing up and crashed into the Benson on the port side, just about the main rigging. Our vessel filled and sank in less than two minutes.

Immediately on ascertaining the schooner's fate, the Reading lowered boats and succeeded in picking up seven of the Benson's crew. Another was rescued by the Westly A. Cove, which was cruising in the vicinity hastened to aid in the work of rescue. Four of the crew were found clinging to a masthead of the submerged vessel. Another was hoisted off on a trawl buoy, became exhausted and sank before aid could reach him. One man had also succumbed from the masthead before the rescuers reached the scene. Four men who were asleep in the bunkers went down with the ship, and were not seen afterwards.

Capt. Reed, of the Reading, says the collision was unavoidable. He was coming from Philadelphia with a cargo of coal, and was proceeding at a moderate rate of speed when the schooner loomed up ahead. The Benson was on a collision course and was owned in Provincetown. The men drowned were Fred Merritt, Fred Sumner, William Newman, Edward Haywood, John Rink and August. It was a bright, starlight night at the time of the collision, which was 1 o'clock.

Billy Sheehan.

I'm a bully boy with a blue eye.

And I'm coming to New York so soon.

I'll give thanks next year if I'm as lucky here as my Laze-erred brother Johnny.

LAST EDITION.

BAKER BURIED IN GREENWOOD.

Body of Seely's Accomplice Brought from His Country Home by Two Sons.

AUTOPSY POINTS TO SUICIDE.

Insurance Company to Have a Chemical Analysis Made for Traces of Poison.

STATE COURT TO INDICT SEELY.

Bank Officials Deny that He Has Been Located and Is Practically Under Arrest.

The body of Lawyer Frederick Baker, accomplice of Assistant Bookkeeper Seely in the robbery of $354,000 from the National Shoe and Leather Bank, left Brooklyn, L. I., this morning, on the train which arrived at the Flatbush avenue station of the Long Island Railroad in Brooklyn at 10.30 o'clock.

The body was in charge of the dead man's two sons. It was thought the remains would be brought to this city before interment in Greenwood, but at Jamaica Junction the body was transferred to the Flatbush avenue branch of the road.

Six Carriages for Mourners.

The plain pine box which inclosed the casket was carried out through the main entrance and placed in a hearse which was in waiting.

There were six carriages on hand to convey the two-score friends, male and female, who were assembled at the station on the arrival of the train.

Only four of the carriages were needed, however, as several of the persons did not accompany the body to the cemetery.

Services at the Grave.

The funeral cortege was driven directly to the Baker family plot at the corner of Cypress avenue and Flatbush path, which adjoins the plot of William E. Burton, the earnest comedian. Until today but one grave had been dug in the plot.

The services at the grave were simple but impressive. Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott, of Plymouth, read the Presbyterian funeral service, and after a prayer and a song, the body was consigned to its last resting place.

During the services, Mrs. Baker, the late lawyer's widow, was very much affected. Both she and her daughter occupied chairs at the grave side.

After the grave had been closed she had to be supported to her carriage by her sons. As the party was leaving the graveside her daughter quietly stooped and selecting two or three white roses, handed them to her mother.

The autopsy performed on Baker's body at Sands Point last night leads the representatives of the Mutual Reserve Fund Insurance Company to believe that his death was not the result of drowning.

The lungs contained no water and the other internal organs were taken out for analysis. The Reserve people will contest the policy of $5,000 if the analysis shows that Baker took poison.

To Search for Poison.

The jar containing the stomach and other organs had not arrived at the offices of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association up to noon today. Coroner Schenck promised Dr. Louis Livingston Beaman, the representative of the company, that he would deliver it at the offices of the company, 50 Broadway, this morning.

Dr. Seaman despatched his assistant to Frederick R. Baker's office shortly after 11 o'clock, requesting him to come to the Mutual Reserve offices.

A consultation will be held between Mr. Baker, President E. B. Harper and Dr. Seaman, at which some action will be determined upon regarding an expert. Officials of the National Shoe and Leather Bank, according to their own statement, as voiced by President Cronin, have no more definite idea of the whereabouts of Seely.

Premier Brand California Wines.

Imported from best Southern varieties of grapes.

Superior to double-pressed imported, all dealers.

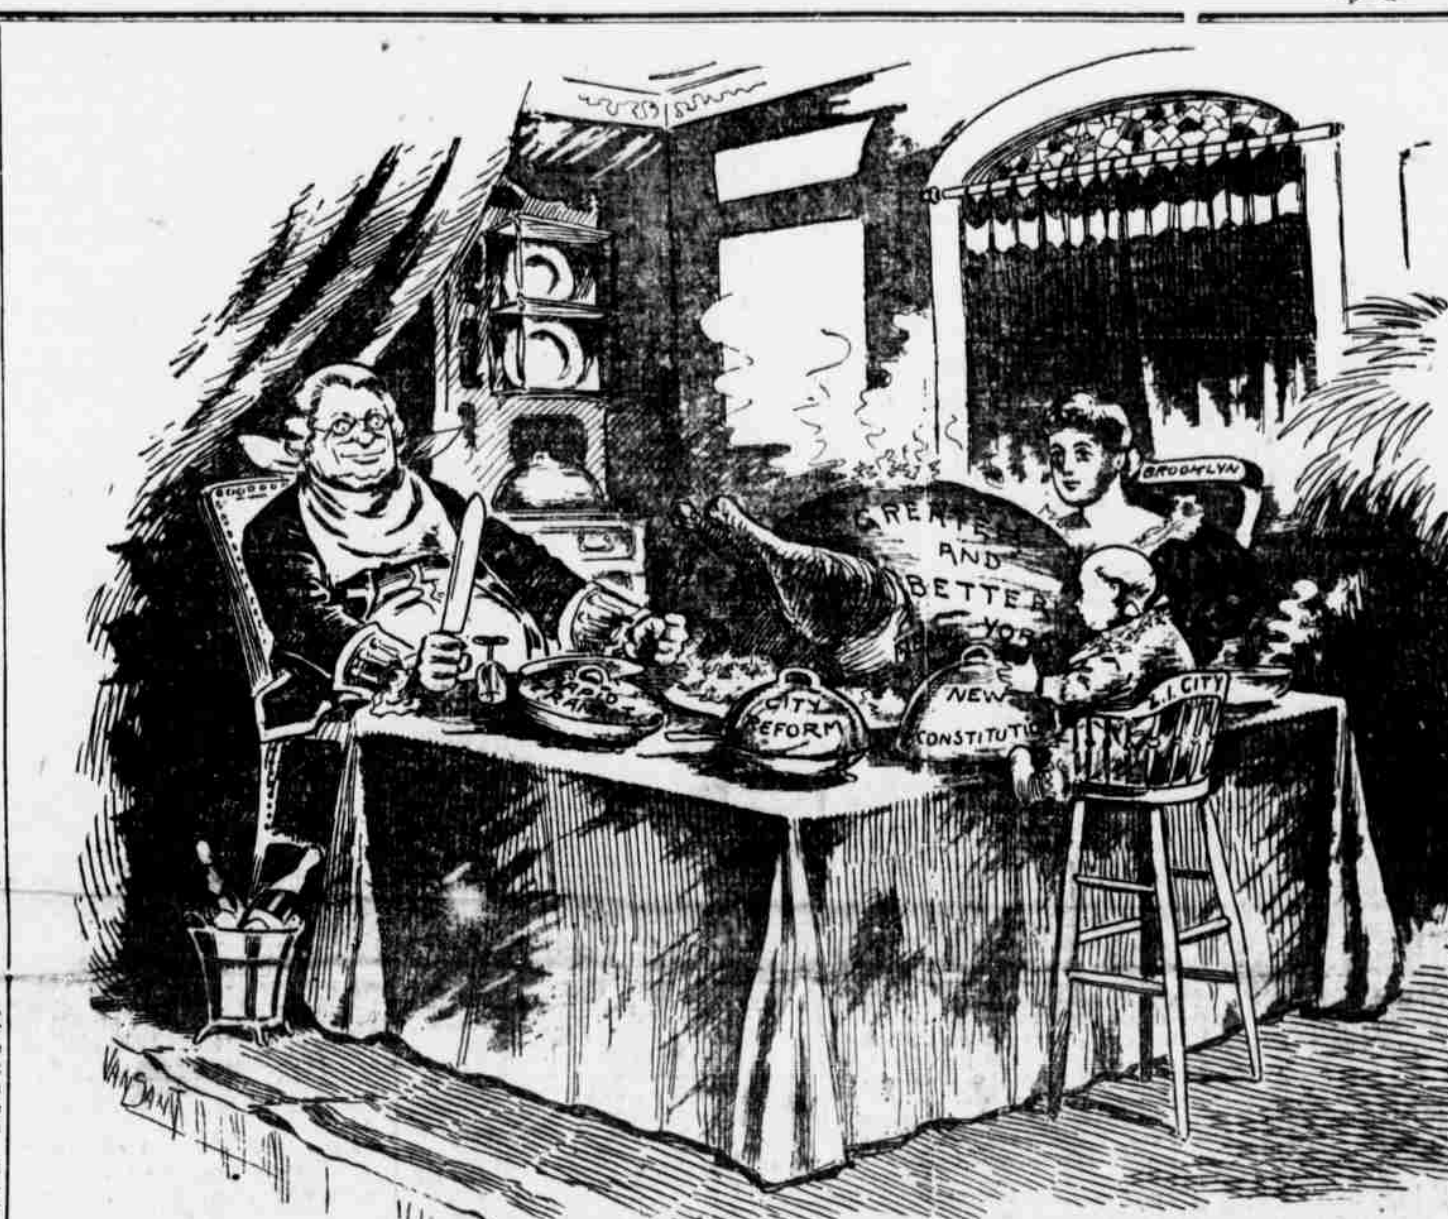

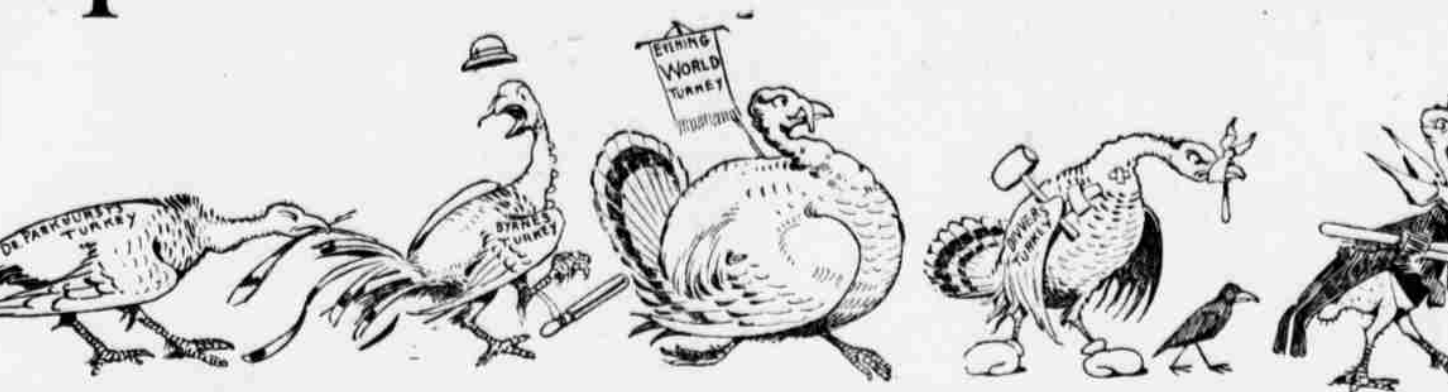

Public Coast Wine Co., 549 B'way & 1490 B'way.

The EVENING WORLD EDITION

"Circulation Books Open to All."

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1894.

THE • TURKEYS • OF • GREAT • MEN.

FATHER KNICKERBOCKER'S TURKEY.

REGISTER LEVY DECORATED.

Centennial Lodge Presents Him with a Sword-Bearer's Badge.

Register Ferdinand Levy is popular in Masonic circles, and in honor of his recent appointment as Grand Sword Bearer of the Grand Lodge of the State the members of Centennial Lodge No. 763, of which he is Past Master, presented him with a handsome jewel of his new office last evening.

The ceremony was held in the Grand Lodge room at Masonic Temple, and more than 1,000 well-known Masons of this city were present, including half a hundred Masters and Past Masters of the Metropolitan Jurisdiction, while several lodges outside sent delegations. The presentation speech was made by Past Master Emanuel Marx, of Centennial Lodge, to which Register Levy replied.

There was a banquet afterwards, at which Platt is thankful.

Because he thinks Cokerville may be changed to Plattville. But he may have reckoned without Strong.

which three Past Grand Masters of the State sat down, Frederick A. Burnham, Frank R. Lawrence and J. Edward Simmons, among others present were Rev. Dr. Vandewater, Grand Chaplain; Edward M. L. Ehlers, Grand Secretary; Stuart Wilson, Charles G. Wilson, William C. Popper and Herman Cantor.

The jewel is in the form of a massive gold badge with a double bar, containing the mystic insignia of the Order, and was mounted in a handsome case.

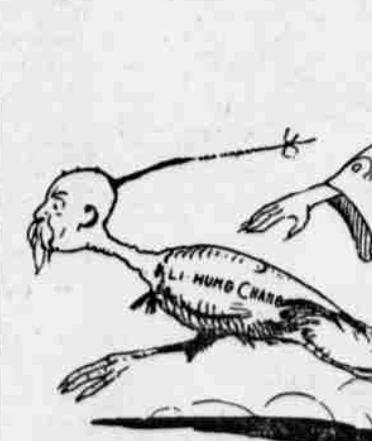

What I don't know about various veins

And rubbing my toe, is it.

And I'm thankful, too, that I also knew

To write a letter to Hill.

CHINA'S TURKEY.

It Looks Very Much as Though It Would Be Ready for Dinner Tomorrow.

Because he can still put his foot down at Elmira.

was held for trial was proof that Sergt. O'Toole had used no influence.

It is not necessary to show that O'Toole did or did not do anything.

Interrupted Justice Inghram. "It is sufficient to show that he received $300 upon the agreement or understanding of Sergt. O'Toole should take money from a man accused of crime, with or without an expressed understanding, it would be highly reprehensible. If police officers were to be allowed to so accept money from persons charged with crime, no matter if there is an implied or expressed understanding that their usefulness should be influenced, their usefulness would be at an end and no circumstances take money from them."

Justice Inghram overruled the demurrer, and Sergt. O'Toole, through his counsel, pleaded not guilty.

No time was fixed for trial. Judge Inghram saying that due notice would be given to the defendant and his counsel.

Three Men Fatally Injured.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 28.—A terrible explosion occurred at the Jack coal mines yesterday.

John A. Jones, James Dyer and a man named Taylor were fatally injured. The explosion resulted from a common powder blast, which ignited the coal. The loss to the mine property will be heavy.

The best table d'hôte dinner is served at the St. James Hotel, N. Y. & 5th st., 4 to 7 P. M.

SITE FOR COOPER'S STATUE.

Park Board Asked to Give the Small Park Near the Union.

Ex-Mayor Edson appeared before the Park Board at its meeting to-day and asked the Board to set apart a site for the statue of Peter Cooper in the small triangular park directly to the south of Cooper Union.

The Commissioners thought that would be the proper place, but before they take definite action the Committee of Art advisers will be called on to inspect the statue, and see that it is up to the proper standard of artistic merit. The money for the making of the statue was raised by popular subscription.

Incidentally President Clausen remarked that the railing about the park should be removed, and in fact from all the small parks. The question was raised as to whether the park would be properly protected, and Mr. Clausen replied sharply that the small parks are not properly policed even with the railings.

John G. Sheehan.

No thanks, just now from this Police Commissioner.

Mr. Lazez knows how it is.

For he's sent all our pentates Schin', or has busted up their hip.

Twenty 'Frisco Passengers Injured.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—A boiler bolt, which had been placed in the slot of the car track on the Hyde street line by some malicious person, wrecked a car and twenty persons were injured, some seriously.

Dr. Parkhurst.

Thankful am I that, through mist and doubt, I heard to the line my heart wanted out;

And that helping hands, supported by tears, Brought New York nearer her "thousand years."

What I don't know about various veins

And rubbing my toe, is it.

And I'm thankful, too, that I also knew

To write a letter to Hill.

Premier Brand California Wines.

Imported from best Southern varieties of grapes.

Superior to double-pressed imported, all dealers.

Public Coast Wine Co., 549 B'way & 1490 B'way.

The best table d'hôte dinner is served at the St. James Hotel, N. Y. & 5th st., 4 to 7 P. M.

Because he can still put his foot down at Elmira.

was held for trial was proof that Sergt. O'Toole had used no influence.

It is not necessary to show that O'Toole did or did not do anything.

Interrupted Justice Inghram. "It is sufficient to show that he received $300 upon the agreement or understanding of Sergt. O'Toole should take money from a man accused of crime, with or without an expressed understanding, it would be highly reprehensible. If police officers were to be allowed to so accept money from persons charged with crime, no matter if there is an implied or expressed understanding that their usefulness should be influenced, their usefulness would be at an end and no circumstances take money from them."

Justice Inghram overruled the demurrer, and Sergt. O'Toole, through his counsel, pleaded not guilty.

No time was fixed for trial. Judge Inghram saying that due notice would be given to the defendant and his counsel.

Three Men Fatally Injured.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 28.—A terrible explosion occurred at the Jack coal mines yesterday.

John A. Jones, James Dyer and a man named Taylor were fatally injured. The explosion resulted from a common powder blast, which ignited the coal. The loss to the mine property will be heavy.

The best table d'hôte dinner is served at the St. James Hotel, N. Y. & 5th st., 4 to 7 P. M.

SERG'T. O'TOOLE PLEADS.

Judge Inghram Reads a Sharp Lecture on Police Duty.

Ex-Judge George M. Curtis entered a demurrer this morning to the indictment against Sergt. William O'Toole for accepting a bribe from Dr. Whitehead. It is claimed that at the time of the alleged offense O'Toole was not a public officer; that no crime was committed, and that the indictments charge more than one crime.

Judge Curtis reviewed the case against O'Toole. Sergt. O'Toole, he claims, was invested with no judicial or executive powers and had no special mission to usurp the functions of the Superintendent of Police or the detective force. He was, according to the indictment, to obtain all evidence against Dr. Whitehead. It had not been shown or alleged that he suppressed any evidence.

Mr. Curtis read the specific charges in the indictment that O'Toole did, on April 30, receive a bribe of $200 from Whitehead to influence him not to assist in the prosecution of Whitehead as fully as he otherwise would have done, and said that the fact that Whitehead was held for trial was proof that Sergt. O'Toole had used no influence.

Why Brockway is Thankful.

Because he can still put his foot down at Elmira.

It is not necessary to show that O'Toole did or did not do anything.

Interrupted Justice Inghram. "It is sufficient to show that he received $300 upon the agreement or understanding of Sergt. O'Toole should take money from a man accused of crime, with or without an expressed understanding, it would be highly reprehensible. If police officers were to be allowed to so accept money from persons charged with crime, no matter if there is an implied or expressed understanding that their usefulness should be influenced, their usefulness would be at an end and no circumstances take money from them."

Justice Inghram overruled the demurrer, and Sergt. O'Toole, through his counsel, pleaded not guilty.

No time was fixed for trial. Judge Inghram saying that due notice would be given to the defendant and his counsel.

Three Men Fatally Injured.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 28.—A terrible explosion occurred at the Jack coal mines yesterday.

John A. Jones, James Dyer and a man named Taylor were fatally injured. The explosion resulted from a common powder blast, which ignited the coal. The loss to the mine property will be heavy.

The best table d'hôte dinner is served at the St. James Hotel, N. Y. & 5th st., 4 to 7 P. M.

Because he can still put his foot down at Elmira.

was held for trial was proof that Sergt. O'Toole had used no influence.

It is not necessary to show that O'Toole did or did not do anything.

Interrupted Justice Inghram. "It is sufficient to show that he received $300 upon the agreement or understanding of Sergt. O'Toole should take money from a man accused of crime, with or without an expressed understanding, it would be highly reprehensible. If police officers were to be allowed to so accept money from persons charged with crime, no matter if there is an implied or expressed understanding that their usefulness should be influenced, their usefulness would be at an end and no circumstances take money from them."

Justice Inghram overruled the demurrer, and Sergt. O'Toole, through his counsel, pleaded not guilty.

LAST EDITION.

WAS SHE PAID TO GET OUT?

Lexow Witness Mrs. Augusta Thurow Sailed Suddenly for Europe.

WANTED AT POLICE TRIALS.

No Watch Was Kept Upon Her from the District-Attorney's Office.

SHE IS SAID TO HAVE HAD MONEY

Her Sister, However, Denies It and Says She Left Numerous Debts Unpaid.

Another of the Lexow witnesses has fled from the city, under circumstances which point very strongly to the suspicion that she was assisted in her flight by the police.

As told in "The World" this morning, Mrs. Augusta Thurow, on whose testimony Police Capt. Doherty, five sergeants and two roundsmen were dismissed from the force, and afterwards indicted by the Grand Jury, sailed for Europe with her husband, Ernest Thurow, last Thursday.

Her testimony would be absolutely essential to the conviction of the indicted police officials, a fact which would unquestionably furnish a sufficient motive for the most desperate efforts to get her out of the way before the trials came on.

Lawyer Moss Surprised.

Lawyer Frank Moss, of counsel for the Lexow Committee, said this morning: "I was greatly surprised when I heard this morning that Mrs. Thurow had fled to Europe. She has been so courageous that I thought she would remain here and see the whole thing out."

"It certainly looks as if she had been spirited away just as Katie Schubert was very carefully, for she is the only person who had very powerful motives for doing all they could to get her out of the way before the trials in the criminal courts of indicted ex-police men came on."

So far as the Lexow Committee was concerned, she had told everything that she could expect to get from her, and since we finished with her I have always understood that she was in the expectation of being called to the witness stand before the Lexow Committee.

What annoys me is the fact that the District-Attorney's office should have watched so important a witness as Mrs. Thurow very carefully, for she is the mainstay of the case for the prosecution against the indicted police officials.

Another Witness Tampered With.

"I heard, incidentally, not long ago that efforts were being made to induce another witness, who had testified before the Committee, and who might be important in future criminal proceedings against several police officials, to leave town."

The information came to me through private channels, but although the Committee was no longer needed by the Committee, I regarded it as my duty to inform the Committee, and when inquiries were made of some of the leading officials there all denied that they had any knowledge of her flight from the city before "The World" published the story.

Supt. Byrnes Doesn't Care.

"I have not troubled myself about Mrs. Thurow," said Supt. Byrnes today, and it is not necessary to show that she remains in town or not. So far as the report is concerned that she may have been tampered with, I have no interest in the matter whatever.

Inspector McLaughlin, who has charge of the Detective Bureau, said:

"I have not been watching the movements of Mrs. Thurow, and know nothing of her flight."

Inspector McLaughlin, who has charge of the Detective Bureau, said:

"I have not been watching the movements of Mrs. Thurow, and know nothing of her flight."

Inspector McLaughlin, who has charge of the Detective Bureau, said:

"I have not been watching the movements of Mrs. Thurow, and know nothing of her flight."

Inspector McLaughlin, who has charge of the Detective Bureau, said:

"I have not been watching the movements of Mrs. Thurow, and know nothing of her flight."

Inspector McLaughlin, who has charge of the Detective Bureau, said:

WEATHER INDICATIONS: FAIR, COLDER.

The people's advertising, such as Real Estate, Houses, Rooms and Apartments, Help and Situations Wanted, Boarders and For Sale, in THE WORLD, is placed before the largest English-reading audience on earth every day in the year.

PRICE ONE CENT

NO SAILING ORDERS.

Big Cruisers Not Demanded for Bluefields Yet.

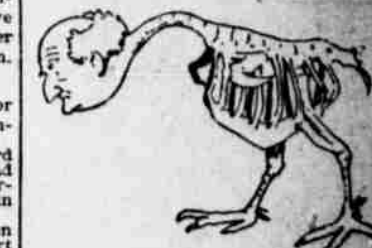

Commodore Sicard's Mail Conveyed No Information.

The New York and San Francisco Are Ready for Sea.

When Commodore Montagu, U. S. N., Commandant of the Brooklyn Navy-Yard, opened his mail from Washington shortly after 10 o'clock this morning he expected to find orders to get several cruisers ready for Bluefields. There were no such orders received, and he believed now that none of the big cruisers at the Brooklyn Navy-Yard will be sent to the Mosquito coast.

The only cruisers that are now available to sail at a moment's notice are the New York and San Francisco. Several days ago orders were received to have the San Francisco ready for sailing orders by Dec. 5.

Before the San Francisco sails, however, Col. Fellows's Turkey.

As it will appear after the LXX's, the G. G.'s and the G. A. R. U.'s are through with it.

ever, it is expected to send her to Newport for her torpedo tubes and return to Brooklyn for coal.

The New York will be ready for sailing orders within a week.

The dynamite cruiser Vesuvius will have to undergo some minor repairs before she will be ready for sea.

The battle-ship Maine and the cruiser Cincinnati are not available, nor is the cruiser Castine, although the latter vessel, it is expected, will go into commission within a month.

Among the officers at the Brooklyn Navy-Yard it was the general opinion this morning that the situation at Bluefields was not as serious as represented, and that the cruisers Columbia and Marblehead were sufficient to look after American interests on the Mosquito coast during the dispute between Great Britain and the Nicaraguan Government.

Rear-Admiral Meade called on Commodore Sicard at the Brooklyn Navy-Yard this morning, but his visit had nothing to do with ordering cruisers to Bluefields. By Admiral Meade's request the usual salute of thirteen guns was not fired from the Cob Dock. Admiral Meade said he knew nothing of the trouble at Bluefields nor of the plans of the United States Government relative to sending cruisers to the Central American waters.

The "L" Road Patrol.

I'm thankful that I've been riding a new

Without a single mishap.

I've got no seat in all that time.

But I've often been used for a whip.

AN INSPECTOR OF SCHOOLS.

Gilroy Appoints Holcomb, of the Tammany General Committee.

Mayor Gilroy to-day appointed Wright Holcomb an inspector of public schools for the Fifth District, in place of Robert L. Lucas. Mr. Lucas was appointed last week, but he failed to qualify. There is no salary attached to the position.

Mr. Holcomb is a lawyer, and was formerly a partner of Frank T. Fitzgerald, the present Surrogate. He served as an Assemblyman a few years ago. He is a member of the Catholic Club, and something of an orator. He is also a member of the General Committee of Tammany Hall, in the Eighth Assembly District, of which Barney Martin is the leader.

Country and City People

When visiting the lower part of New York on Thanksgiving Day will find Mr. Lucas's residence, 140 Fulton street and 27 Ann street, with an excellent fare and comfortable accommodations; 50 cents a bottle.